Set on the banks of the Whiteadder River this luxuriously appointed property commands wonderful views over the water and surrounding countryside – perfect for watching the abundant wildlife and enjoying riverside walks. Providing a superb base from which to explore the Scottish Borders Riverside Mews is part of an exclusive rural development on the site of an old mill just 8 miles from Berwick-upon-Tweed's Elizabethan ramparts and good selection of shops and restaurants. This is a holiday location to suit everyone – for natural pleasures the spectacular coastline and nature reserve of St Abb's Head are just a few miles away and the Northumbrian coast's miles of unspoilt beaches and Holy Island of Lindisfarne are a half hour drive. Whilst for visitors seeking historic attractions and lively cultural delights the beautiful city of Edinburgh is only about an hour's drive. Seal spotting and feeding boat trips and diving are easily accessible as are great country houses and castles including Aydon Floors and Mellerstain. Shops and pubs serving food 3 miles.
