Set within a recent and sympathetically converted small courtyard (formally a fish merchant's yard) and just a few moments' stroll from the harbourside (pictured) with roof top views across the Firth of Forth and out to Bass Rock this very comfortable and well appointed town house makes an ideal holiday base. Anstruther the largest of the East Neuk fishing villages is home to the Scottish Fisheries Museum as well as interesting shops welcoming pubs and an award winning fish and chip shop (500 yards). Just 9 miles away lies the 'home' of golf the ancient university town of St Andrews and many other excellent courses are close by. Visitors can enjoy boat trips to the Isle of May there are wonderful coastal footpaths and the beaches are glorious.

Twin bedded room with zip and link beds (super king size double by arr). Bathroom/WC (shower over bath). First floor: Sitting room with dining area. Kitchen. Second floor: Double bedroom with ensuite shower room/WC with sloping ceiling.
