On the bonny banks of Loch Lomond these newly built timber lodges offer excellent holiday accommodation amidst the beautiful surroundings of the Loch Lomond and Trossachs National Park. Whatever the season there is so much to see and do in the area: the landscape of gentle lowlands gives way to rugged highland peaks glens and lochs – a paradise for walkers – whilst jet skiing and canoeing are among a variety of local activities sure to please water sports enthusiasts and pony trekking mountain biking facilities and excellent golf courses can all be found nearby. And the lodges themselves provide a haven of relaxation – each lodge enjoys spectacular views from its private veranda and they all share an indoor hot tub barbecue hut and two acres of grounds with a private jetty and stunning shoreline with two other holiday properties. The vibrant city of Glasgow is only an hour's drive away and the many delights of historic Edinburgh lie within easy reach (2 hours' drive). Walkers and climbers can access the West Highland Way by taking the ferry from the Ardlui Hotel just 200 yards away and offering a bar and shop.

Entrance from terrace into open plan sitting/dining/kitchen area with beautiful quartz floor. Double bedroom. Twin bedded room. Bathroom/W.C. (shower over bath).
