In the beautiful Beaully Valley lying in grounds once part of a deer park where a small herd and horses still graze this pair of recently renovated cottages offers a very comfortable base from which to explore the locality. Adjacent to the owner's home they are just 4 miles from the flower-bedecked town of Beaully's interesting shops and choice of restaurants. The fish lift at Aigas Dam is within walking distance. Glen Affric with dramatic waterfalls and almost endless freedom to roam is a 30 minute drive whilst Loch Ness and Urquart Castle are a similar distance. Golf (9 hole) 1 mile. Shop and pub 4 miles.

Spacious open plan sitting room with dining area and well fitted kitchen area. Double bedroom with ensuite shower room/W.C. Twin bedded room. Bathroom/W.C. (shower over bath).
