

Lochside House

Letterfearn

Letterfearn, Ross-shire IV40 8HT

Highlands Scotland

Phone: 0844 847 1143

Boasting a spectacular location for the ultimate relaxing break these two exceptional cottages nestle serenely on the shores of Loch Duich. With their tastefully and very comfortably furnished interiors and easy access to sailing and fishing (boat hire and launching facilities are available just across the road) they offer an ideal holiday base.

This is excellent walking cycling and climbing country (the south ridge of Glen Shiel has no less than five munros – hills over 3000 ft) affording magnificent views of Loch Duich the Five Sisters of Kintail and famous Eilean Donan Castle which is surrounded by majestic scenery and is one of the most visited and important attractions in the Scottish Highlands. There are several National Trust properties in the region including Plockton a delightful village much loved by artists and which lies within an easy drive as does Glenelg home to a country inn providing good food and the seasonal ferry to the Isle of Skye. Here visitors can discover the Isle's stunning landscape of rugged mountains tumbling rivers and spectacular coastline that is home to bountiful wildlife fine museums and craft centres. A shop post office and pub serving food can be found in Shiel Bridge 5 miles.

Gloriously set beside Loch Duich with magnificent views from most rooms. Sitting room with oak floors and loch views. Glass doors through to kitchen with island unit oak floor and dining area. Sun room with doors to garden and spectacular views. Utility room. Twin bedded room with sleigh oak beds and TV. Shower room/W.C. First floor: Master double bedroom with 5' half tester bed TV and ensuite shower room/W.C. Double bedroom and twin bedded room both with sleigh oak beds and TV. Stylish modern bathroom/W.C. with jacuzzi bath large shower cubicle and underfloor heating.

Visit Website

Email Friend