Set within the peaceful orchard gardens of the old Priory Farm in Anderby's nature preservation area in the National Park these exceptionally lovely cottages share a pretty courtyard whilst each enjoying its own enclosed private patio with hot tub. The luxuriously appointed cottage interiors are fresh and contemporary and the welcoming owner's talent in garden design is evident in the aromatic herbs and gorgeous planting gracing the beautiful patio areas. Cycle loan is available to visitors for exploring the coastline – the coastal path runs both north and south and locally many waymarked footpaths invite walkers. Just 1½ miles away is the glorious beach at Anderby Creek which now boasts a new 'cloud interpretation platform' and bird hide as well as superb sands a licensed beach cafe seasonal shop and pub. (Dogs are welcome on part of the beach all year round although prohibited in the main bathing area in summer.) Golf coarse and sea fishing and horse riding are all enjoyed nearby.

The East Coast's diverse delights include fantastic Blue Flag beaches seal havens with breeding seals on the sands at Donna Nook in November bird sanctuaries and of course the traditional seaside fun restaurants and takeaways at Chapel St Leonards (3½ miles) and Skegness (9 miles) home of Fantasy Island theme park. The market town of Alford's famous windmill is 4 miles the city of Lincoln's medieval centre and vibrant waterfront are an easy drive and the area's aviation museums are always popular.
