Set in the rural heartland of Dumfries and Galloway on a stunningly beautiful 650 acre estate these delightful cottages have been tastefully converted from various farm buildings to provide comfortable accommodation in a wonderful location. As well as enjoying splendid views of hills and countryside visitors to the cottages enjoy access to a grass tennis court croquet and fishing on the River Tarff. Farm tours are also available and cycles can be hired on site. The area has plenty to offer with a variety of holiday activities to enjoy including horse riding and many good fishing spots nearby and several golf courses locally. Within 5 miles are the lovely safe sandy beaches of the Solway coast and at Loch Ken (10 miles) there is a superb water sports centre offering sailing windsurfing canoeing and water skiing. Nearest shop and pub is 3 miles away.

This charming cottage enjoys its own garden with views across the pond and mature woodland. Spacious open plan sitting/dining room with open fire and kitchen area. Double bedroom. Twin bedded room. Bathroom/W.C.
