

Shore Cottage

Shore Cottage Stonefield
Tarbert, Argyll PA29 6YJ
West Scotland

Phone: 0844 847 1143

Boasting glorious sea views and a breathtakingly lovely setting on the shores of east Loch Tarbert this beautifully renovated cottage originally built over 100 years ago for the quarryman is now an idyllic and secluded holiday retreat. With a shoreside garden and great walking from the door visitors can enjoy watching deer seals and seabirds in their natural habitat yet just 2 miles away is the village of Tarbert a picturesque fishing and sailing port with a variety of shops pubs cafes restaurants and craft galleries. The Mull of Kintyre is a delight to explore there are fabulous sandy beaches at Carradale and day trips to the famous gardens on the Isle of Gigha or to the Isle of Arran are also easily accessible.

Hall. Sitting/dining room with wood burner French door to garden and fantastic sea views. Modern fitted kitchen. Double bedroom with ensuite shower room/WC. Twin bedded room. Bathroom/WC (shower over bath).

Visit Website

Email Friend