

Y Cut-Lloi

Penuwch Fawr Capel Seion
Aberystwyth, Ceredigion SY23 4ND
Mid Wales

Phone: 0844 847 1143

In peace and rural tranquillity these delightful and comfortably appointed cottages nestle amidst beautiful countryside yet are just moments away from a myriad holiday attractions. Skilfully converted from traditional farm buildings they sit 5½ miles from Aberystwyth home to the University of Wales and national library as well as a fine selection of shops pubs restaurants seaside entertainments. There are castle ruins too and at the far end of the promenade Britain's only electric cliff railway climbs to the summit of Constitution Hill for an amazing panorama of Cardigan Bay. From the town a little train travels to the stunning waterfalls at Devil's Bridge. Safe sandy beaches boat trips for dolphin watching or fishing Rhayader's Red kite feeding station excellent walking and bird watching and mountain biking in the Cambrian hills are all easily accessible. Pub serving food 1¼ miles.

Open Plan sitting/dining room with patio door to garden. Well equipped kitchen. Double bedroom with TV and ensuite shower room/WC. Double bedroom with TV. Two twin bedded rooms both with TV. Bathroom/WC (shower over bath).

Visit Website
Email Friend