

Stallion Valley

Cwm March Prengwyn
Llandysul, Ceredigion SA44 4LR
Mid Wales

Phone: 0844 847 1143

Bursting with charm and character these three beautifully renovated properties – a Grade II listed traditional farmhouse and the skilful conversion of the former farm mill and adjoining barn – offer an idyllically peaceful year round retreat and affording opportunities for wonderful walking. Each property boasts its own private garden and they all enjoy shared access to 3½ acres of delightful grounds whose paddocks woodland and ponds are a haven for wildlife. And this tranquil rural setting lies just ¼ mile from a pub restaurant and within easy reach of a wealth of holiday attractions.

Unspoilt National Trust beaches are just 9 miles away and at nearby New Quay the dolphin and seal watching trips are some of the most popular excursions in mid Wales. Further up the coast is the bustling university town of Aberystwyth with its cliff railway Camera Obscura Ceredigion Museum and the National Library of Wales. To the south is Cardigan with nearby Cilgerran Castle and the beautiful Cenarth Falls. Further inland and steeped in Welsh folklore and history the town of Carmathen (18 miles) is well worth a trip and within a short drive of Stallion Valley visitors can enjoy nostalgic journeys on the Teifi Valley narrow gauge steam railway. Superb fishing white water rafting canoeing and other adventure activities can be found in Llandysul (2 miles) along with a selection of shops.

Spacious open plan sitting/dining room with wood burning stove and kitchen area. Double bedroom. Twin bedded room. Shower room/WC.

Visit Website
Email Friend