

Quarry Cottage

The Old Quarry Hospital Hospital Road Rhiw
Blaenau Ffestiniog, Gwynedd LL41 3HS
North Wales

Phone: 0844 847 1143

Perfect for year round breaks situated just ½ mile from the heart of the little slate town of Blaenau Ffestiniog with its good selection shops and restaurants these two properties provide an impressive venue for larger groups holidaying together. Created from the skilful conversion of the old hospital for the quarry workers originally built nearly 200 years ago and standing proudly above the town they boast smart spacious and contemporary interiors. Two premier attractions are almost on the doorstep: Llechwedd slate caverns where visitors can explore spectacular underground chambers and the famous Ffestiniog narrow gauge steam railway for scenic journeys to the pretty little harbour town of Porthmadog. For the more adventurous the surrounding Snowdonia National Park offers exhilarating outdoor pursuits whilst fine sandy beaches championship golf and historic castle are all in easy reach.

Hall. Double bedroom. First floor: Sitting room with gas 'wood burner effect' stove and doors to decked area. Kitchen with breakfast area. Utility room. Bathroom/WC with whirlpool bath and separate shower cubicle.

Visit Website
Email Friend