

Moriah

Nant y Garth
Y Felinheli, Gwynedd LL56 4QE
North Wales

Phone: 0844 847 1143

Stunning countryside views of Snowdonia and the Isle of Anglesey delightfully bright very comfortable smart and contemporary interiors and a peaceful setting ideally located for exploring this beautiful corner of North Wales make these three converted traditional farm buildings the perfect base for relaxing break. A 4 mile drive leads to Caernarfon home to a magnificent castle and the Welsh Highland Railway for scenic journeys into the heart of the Snowdonia mountains whilst from Bangor (2 miles) bridges cross the Menai Strait to Anglesey where Beaumaris Castle the butterfly farm sea zoo and glorious sandy beaches for water sports are among the island's many attractions. And at the foot of Snowdon Llandberis (8 miles) boasts a lakeside and mountain railway as well as a slate museum and huge range of outdoor activities. Pub serving food and shop 1 mile.

Double bedroom with 5' bed and ensuite bathroom/W.C. (shower over bath). Spacious open plan sitting room with wood burning stove doors to patio and well equipped kitchen and dining area.

Visit Website
Email Friend