In a spectacular shoreside setting looking out over the Menai Strait (right photograph) this supremely comfortable detached cottage (white property pictured) boasts fabulous uninterrupted views and a perfect location for enjoying the Isle of Anglesey's stunning coastline golden sandy beaches and host of family attractions. Visitors to Pilot's Cottage also benefit from use of the excellent facilities of the prestigious Plas Coch holiday park just ½ mile away which include an indoor heated swimming pool and sauna free of charge as well as a pub and restaurant. A children's farm park and charming model village are found nearby and a little further along the coast the Anglesey Sea Zoo the largest marine aquarium in Wales provides a fascinating insight into the life around our shores and a great family day out whatever the weather. The elegant town of Beaumaris (8 miles) as well as being the setting for a splendid castle built by Edward I and the excellent Museum of Childhood is the place to head for puffin and seal watching cruises – one of the highlights of a holiday on Anglesey. Golf riding and walking are all enjoyed locally and Snowdonia with its wealth of outdoor activities is easily accessible. Shops are 4 miles away in the village of Llanfair PG (full name Llanfairpwllgwyngyllgogerychwyrndrobwlllantysiliogogoch!) and in Bangor 6 miles.
