

Summerhill Cottage

Summerhill Farmhouse Summerhill
Amroth, Pembrokeshire SA67 8LY
South Wales

Phone: 0844 847 1143

In a peaceful setting in the Pembrokeshire National Park these exquisite cottages converted from 18th century outbuildings to an extremely high standard provide a romantic retreat ideal for that special anniversary or honeymoon. Just ½ mile from a sandy beach they have been skilfully furnished by the caring owners who live nearby; each boasts a hot tub antiques and wood burning stove. Imaginative landscaping allows each cottage its own secluded garden with views over the surrounding countryside. The delightful seaside village of Amroth with shop pub and restaurant is ¾ mile. The start of the Pembrokeshire Coastal Path and Colby Woodland Garden (N.T.) are nearby with gentle wooded walks or dramatic cliff top views to enjoy. The attractive town of Tenby with its castle remains and 14th century town walls Georgian and Regency buildings and good shops is an easy drive away.

This attractive cottage with wisteria around the door is full of charm pretty furnishings and antiques: Fitted kitchen. Sitting room with wood burner dining area and French doors to patio. Shower room/W.C with power shower in double shower cubicle. First floor: Double bedroom with 6' super king sized bed and window seat offering coastal views and ensuite shower room/W.C.

Visit Website
Email Friend