

Globe House

Angle, Pembrokeshire SA71 5AT
South Wales

Phone: 0844 847 1143

This outstanding Grade II listed residence with its own hot tub has recently been completely refurbished to offer luxurious comfort in its lovely very spacious and beautifully modernised interior. Just a short walk from a sandy beach it enjoys a prime position in the small unspoilt coastal village of Angle on West Angle Bay within the Pembrokeshire National Park. The sandstone cliffs around the peninsula are home to seabirds such as fulmers and cormorants and the rare chough can be spotted here. The Pembrokeshire Coast offers beautiful coves and sandy beaches wild flowers adorn the cliff tops and there is excellent walking on the Pembrokeshire Coastal Path.

Pembroke with its historic castle shops inns and restaurants is 6 miles away whilst the attractive town of Tenby (15 miles) boasts seaside attractions a sports centre and golf. Shop/P.O. and pub serving food in village

Hall. Cloakroom/W.C. Large attractive sitting room with Sky TV. Dining room. Spacious fitted kitchen with TV. Laundry room. Second sitting room with TV and gas fire. First floor: Twin bedded room with TV and ensuite bathroom/W.C. Twin bedded room with ensuite shower room/W.C. Double bedroom with four poster bed and wash basin. Twin bedded room with wash basin. Further double bedroom with wash basin. Bathroom/W.C. with bidet and separate shower cubicle. Second floor: This is used as storage space by the owners.

Visit Website
Email Friend