

Newtons Well

Newtons Well Summerhill Lane Manorbier Newton
Manorbier Newton, Pembrokeshire SA70 8PX
South Wales

Phone: 0844 847 1143

Ideally situated within the National Park and within easy reach of the best of south Pembrokeshire this spacious and very comfortably appointed family home displays the well travelled owners' interesting Far Eastern furnishings. The surrounding area of outstanding natural beauty offers glorious beaches hidden coves water sports including adrenaline pumping coasteering and surfing historic castles and the magnificent National Trust coastline to explore. Nearby the villages of Lamphey and Jameston just 1 ½ miles away or a half hour's walk provide inns and eateries and a small shop and the railway halt at Lamphey makes trips to Pembroke and Carmarthen extra fun. At the seaside village of Manorbier (2 miles) visitors will find a castle and wide sandy beach (pictured) popular with surfers. The lively walled town of Tenby (5 miles) boasts lovely beaches an excellent leisure centre cinema and boat trips to offshore islands affording sightings of seals porpoise dolphins and whales. Oakwood and Folly Farm's man made excitements the Blue Lagoon water park Dinosaur Park and Heatherton are all a few minutes' drive and the National Botanical Gardens of Wales Dylan Thomas's boathouse St David's Cathedral and cheese and chocolate farms are easily accessible. Haverfordwest shopping is 15 miles.

Entrance hall with rosewood bar and stools. Well equipped fitted kitchen with breakfast area (seats 4). Large utility room with Belfast sink. Cloakroom/WC. very comfortable and spacious sitting room with electric fire. Dining room with rosewood suite. Small conservatory/garden room with patio doors to terrace. First floor: Double bedroom with king size bed TV and ensuite shower room/WC with double shower. Twin bedded room with TV. Double bedroom with TV. Bathroom/WC (shower over bath).

Visit Website
Email Friend