Tucked away at the end of a lane filled with wildflowers and below the upland beauty of the Preseli Hills this Victorian stone farmhouse and its ancient stone stables and granary (both cleverly converted to make the most of glorious views) provide a delightful holiday location. Their idyllic setting is a working sheep and beef farm in the Pembrokeshire Coast National Park an area of outstanding natural beauty affording easy access to lovely walking and splendid beaches for swimming and relaxed family fun. And within 10 miles visitors to Garden Farm will find a wealth of sporting activities and attractions from sailing and sea trips to art and craft galleries and the man made excitements of Oakwood theme park. Set on a spectacular stretch of coastline renowned for its abundant wildlife the tiny cathedral city of St David's is also well worth a visit. There are several good restaurants locally and the nearest pub is just ½ mile whilst shops are 3 miles and Haverfordwest's comprehensive facilities are only 9 miles distant.

Double bedroom. Single bedroom with additional pull out bed (for + 1). Bathroom/W.C. (shower over bath). First floor: Attractive open plan sitting/dining room with panoramic views. Fully fitted kitchen with breakfast area.
