Perfect for a relaxing break these two lovingly converted barns nestle peacefully on the national nature reserve at Saltfleetby just 100 yards from the sand dunes and 15 minutes' walk from the coast at Rimax and Saltfleet. Cosy comfortable and enjoying their own individual gardens they offer a delightful holiday base on the fringes of the beautiful Lincolnshire Wolds. Bird watching walking cycling on quiet country lanes and seal watching at Dona Nook are all popular activities here and the gloriously unspoilt coastline's quaint seaside resorts such as Sutton on Sea and Anderby Creek are well worth exploring whilst Mablethorpe and Skegness provide plenty of family fun. Pretty market towns (nearby Louth is a real gem) antiques hunting in Horncastle and racing at Market Rasen are all within in easy drive as is the city of Lincoln with its cobbled streets castle cathedral and famous Christmas market. Shop and pub serving food ½ mile.

Open plan sitting/dining room with well equipped kitchen area and door to garden. Double bedroom with countryside views. Bathroom/W.C. (shower over bath).
