Nestling peacefully in open glades amidst 80 acres of ancient bluebell woodland – a bird watchers' delight – these most attractive Scandinavian style lodges are ideal for a relaxing break. Set with a number of similar properties on the 320 acre Kenwick Park Estate they enjoy free access to the health and leisure club's indoor swimming pool sauna jacuzzi gym and squash and tennis courts. There is also an 18 hole golf course (at extra charge) as well as a bar and restaurant. The beautiful Wolds lie close by as do gloriously unspoilt sandy beaches whilst year round attractions within easy reach include Lincoln with its castle soaring cathedral and cobbled streets; browsing for antiques at Horncastle; and all the traditional fun of the seaside at Skegness. There are good shops just 1 mile away in Louth a delightful market town that appears almost untouched by time.

Open plan sitting room with dining and kitchen areas rugs on wooden floors and patio doors to a sheltered veranda. Double bedroom with ensuite shower cubicle and wash basin. Twin bedded room. Bathroom/WC (shower over bath).
