

Apartment 8 Oceans Edge

, Devon holidays
South West England

Phone: See website

Ocean's Edge is a stunning new development of eleven luxury oceanfront apartments right on the water's edge many with breathtaking views of the South Devon coastline. The apartments are just a short walk from the beach at Thurlestone Sands and adjacent to the South West coast path. The historic villages of Thurlestone and Hope Cove are nearby with hotel, golf and restaurant facilities together with local pubs and village store and post office. There is a delightful, heated, kidney-shaped swimming pool available throughout the main season (please check with the office for dates). Good sized gardens to the front and rear of the development.
