Broadsands is an elegant country house overlooking Thurlestone's famous coastal golf course and out to sea. It is within just a short walk of Thurlestone beach and the South West coast path. The house has been extensively refurbished and extended in recent years to provide a very high standard of accommodation for one/two families, adult groups or those simply looking for a luxury retreat in a beautiful location! The ground floor of the house has mainly hardwood flooring with ceramic tiles in the stunning new kitchen/orangery - carpet on the stairs and throughout the first floor bedrooms. The house is fully double-glazed and enjoys the benefits of oil fired central heating and hot water. Wireless broadband internet available. Strictly no smokers or pets permitted.
