

The Court House

Buckley Street
, Devon holidays
South West England

Phone: See website

A fully refurbished and spacious property - the upper two levels of a three storey house - with direct, level access from Buckley Street. The Court House has an appealing black and white Georgian facade with twin pillars and frame surrounding the front door. Very tastefully decorated and furnished to a high standard throughout. Beautiful oak flooring on the ground floor level with slate tiles in the kitchen and carpet upstairs. Gas central heating and hot water.
