

Moulthaven Coach House

South Sands
, Devon holidays
South West England

Phone: See website

A well presented former coach house set in its own grounds and with lovely sea views. The property has been extensively refurbished to a very good standard throughout in readiness for the 2009 season and is an ideal holiday retreat for one/two couples or a family group. The house is mainly carpeted throughout and enjoys the benefit of gas fired under-floor heating and hot water. Wireless broadband internet available and telephone for local and incoming calls. Strictly no smoking. *One small dog may be permitted by arrangement with the owner but restricted to the ground floor hallway only.
