Rickham Farm is a spacious and well appointed house in a truly spectacular location overlooking the coastline close to the mouth of the Salcombe estuary. The house provides ample accommodation for one or two families and is an ideal base for 'bucket-and-spade' holidays, walking breaks or couples looking for a quiet, rural retreat in an area of outstanding natural beauty. Dating from 1880 the house has been modernised to a good standard in recent years, and enjoys the benefits of double glazing and oil fired central heating. Mostly carpeted throughout with parquet flooring in the hall and study. Strictly no smoking or pets permitted. Telephone and wireless broadband internet available.
