Set in one of Norfolk's prettiest coastal villages and only 400 yards from its sweeping sandy beach this well appointed cottage is perfect for a relaxing break whatever the season. Enjoying its own private patio and front garden it adjoins the owners' home a mere 500 yard stroll from the village inn and shop. Visitors to this lovely coastal region should not miss a visit to Cromer famous for its delicious crabs and seasonal end of pier shows or to the charming historic market towns of Holt and North Walsham. A trip to the medieval city of Norwich with its cathedral castle museum galleries cinemas theatres and excellent shopping affords a great day out as does Wroxham the bustling 'capital' of the Norfolk Broads where visitors will find boats for hire and river trips as well as a steam railway.

Well equipped kitchen. Sitting/dining room with floor to ceiling feature fireplace and radiant fire. Conservatory. Two double bedrooms. Two steps up to shower room/W.C. with double shower cubicle.
