Nestling in one of Norfolk's pretty villages surrounded by quiet lanes ideal for cycling and walking this delightful barn conversion offers a warm welcome whatever the season. Boasting its own private walled garden it sits tucked away in the grounds of the owners' home midway between Holt with its boutiques galleries and restaurants and Cromer with its famous end of pier show (both 6 miles) – an ideal location for exploring many of the nearby attractions. The glorious beaches of the north Norfolk coast bird reserves fishing villages Royal Sandringham Blickling Hall (N.T.) and the market town of Aylsham are all within an easy drive as are the Norfolk Broads and Norwich city. Pub and shop ? mile.

Spacious beamed open plan sitting/dining room with wood burning stove door to garden and well equipped kitchen area. Pretty double bedroom with 5' bed and ensuite shower room/WC with double shower cubicle.
