Set amidst 250 acres of gloriously peaceful and attractive farmland these three delightful imaginatively converted and very comfortable cottages offer visitors the opportunity to enjoy bird watching whilst strolling along the banks of the tranquil River Lark. Each cottage boasts its own hot tub and enjoys shared use of a sheltered outdoor heated swimming pool available for the summer. Charolais cattle and horses graze in the meadows and the owners' fine Tudor farmhouse stands nearby. Ideally situated for exploring this lovely region Culford is a little hamlet less than 3 miles from historic Bury St Edmunds' Theatre Royal (N.T.) Abbey and Priory Gardens. Thetford Forest N.T. Long Melford Hall and Lavenham Guildhall Newmarket Races and the city of Cambridge are all within 30 minutes' drive. Pubs restaurants shop/P.O. 3 miles.

This enchanting conversion of a Victorian dairy is adjacent to the owner's Tudor farmhouse. Hall. Very comfortable sitting/dining room with French doors to garden and hot tub. Kitchen with slate worktops. Double bedroom. Bathroom/W.C. (shower over bath). First floor: Galleried twin bedded room overlooking sitting room.
