

East Paradise Cottage Swaledale

Low Row
Swaledale, North Yorkshire DL11 6NE
North East England

Phone: 0844 847 1143

Enjoying a panoramic vista of breathtaking scenery (pictured) in the heart of Swaledale this spacious detached cottage certainly lives up to its name! Resulting from the joining of three traditional buildings and recently renovated to provide a truly comfortable holiday home for families or groups it boasts both a safely enclosed rooftop terrace – making the most of those splendid views – and a lovely private garden.

This is wonderful walking and cycling country fly fishing is available locally and pony trekking can be enjoyed in Arkengarthdale 4 miles. There are castles in Richmond and Middleham and Wensleydale is home to the Dales Museum the ropemakers' gallery and Wensleydale creamery in Hawes the Aysgarth Falls and Castle Bolton. Barnard Castle and the Bowes Museum are 15 miles Fountains Abbey Newby Hall and the Lightwater Valley are 25 miles and the Lake District is about 35 miles. Reeth (3½ miles) has a small weekly market shops cafés pubs and restaurants. Pub 500 yards.

Steps to first floor entrance. Dining room with archway to well equipped kitchen and French doors to roof terrace with panoramic views. Ground floor: Spacious sitting room. Two double bedrooms. Twin bedded room. Bathroom/W.C. (shower over bath). Bathroom/W.C. Lower ground floor: Twin bedded room with access through to second twin bedded room with French doors to garden.

Visit Website
Email Friend