

Pavey Ark

Brantfield Road
Bowness, Cumbria LA23 3AE
North West England

Phone: 0844 847 1143

This spectacular glamorous lakeland property occupies the most magnificent and enviable position above Bowness-On-Windermere with lake views across Windermere from the vast sitting room and balcony. It's fantastic facilities include indoor swimming pool sauna and TV/media room (and was once the temporary home from home of the Harry Potter stars and film crew). The sloping gardens feature terraces with barbecue area leading to 10 acres of lakeland woodland. The delights of Bowness are within downhill walking distance and include good food pubs restaurants a variety of shops and galleries hotel spa Steam Boat Museum and a cinema and of course Windermere with its steamers boat hire and ferry. Numerous footpaths lead off to tracks around the lake and onto the fells. Should guests wish to explore further a field Hawkshead the home of Beatrix Potter Kendal with museums and high street shopping Ambleside through to Grasmere with the homes of William Wordsworth at the heart of the lakes are approximately half an hour away.

This spectacular glamorous lakeland property occupies the most magnificent and enviable position above Bowness-On-Windermere with lake views across Windermere from the vast sitting room and balcony. It's fantastic facilities include indoor swimming pool sauna and TV/media room (and was once the temporary home from home of the Harry Potter stars and film crew). The sloping gardens feature terraces with barbecue area leading to 10 acres of lakeland woodland. The delights of Bowness are within downhill walking distance and include good food pubs restaurants a variety of shops and galleries hotel spa Steam Boat Museum and a cinema and of course Windermere with its steamers boat hire and ferry. Numerous footpaths lead off to tracks around the lake and onto the fells. Should guests wish to explore further a field Hawkshead the home of Beatrix Potter Kendal with museums and high street shopping Ambleside through to Grasmere with the homes of William Wordsworth at the heart of the lakes are approximately half an hour away.

Visit Website
Email Friend

