

Brixton Barn

Grove Cottage Main Road Brighstone
Brighstone, Isle of Wight PO30 4DJ
South East England

Phone: 0844 847 1143

Picture postcard perfect The Grove features Grade II listed thatched cottage together with a 200 year old thatched barn carefully arranged to ensure maximum privacy for individual guests or providing ample accommodation for six when booked together. Grove Cottage has grown from humble beginnings as a coachman's dwelling to a TV celebrity in the 1980's where its photogenic exterior and beautiful gardens were regular features of popular BBC sitcom Brush Strokes. Brixton Barn once a National Trust office has been converted with Travertine marble floors underfloor heating and a luxurious ensuite bathroom to provide outstanding accommodation for two. Set just ½ mile from a sandy beach and a ¼ mile stroll from the welcoming local pub and local village stores The Grove enjoys a wonderful location in the medieval village of Brighstone. Totally unspoilt and threaded with lovely walks and cycle paths the surrounding countryside is a joy to explore. There are miles of sandy beaches close by and a great range of attractions within a short drive. Newport 7 miles and sailing at Yarmouth 10 miles.

Comfortable sitting/dining room. Spacious well equipped kitchen with Range cooker. First floor: Double bedroom with king size bed and ensuite bathroom/WC with air bath and separate shower cubicle.

Visit Website

Email Friend